Identity Working Group

Note that the group recently rebranded as the Identity Special Interest Group and the main page for their wiki has changed. This page for the Identity Working Group has been archived and is being preserved to prevent links to this page from breaking. Check out the new Identity Special Group page for the latest details for the group.

Description	The purpose of the Identity Working Group is to discuss, research, and document ways to capture, store, transmit and use Identities on the DLT, specifically for the projects in the Hyperledger greenhouse. The Identities can be of nodes that participate in the running of the DLT or entities that transact on the DLT.

Charter

Link to the charter.

Scope

The scope is limited to the various lifecycle events and use of Identity needed to securely participate in the Hyperledger Project DLT implementations. We host a series of presentations on the Identity aspects of blockchain implementations in Hyperledger projects.

In scope is the dissemination of information on various pure Identity projects like Indy and Aries. Also in scope are efforts to launch such projects in Hyperledger or create identity labs in Hyperledger labs.

The Hyperledger Implementer's calls track implementations in the various implementation tracks: Indy, Aries and others.

We are also keyed into the wider Identity ecosystem, globally. Standards work around Identity is also reported on; specifically we track the Verifiable Credential Group, DIF, TOIP and W3C DID specification.

In addition, we are working on a whitepaper on Identity,
